State Water Resources Control Board

The Water Board understands that the COVID-19 emergency is negatively impacting many dischargers. If you anticipate difficulty paying the enclosed invoice by the specified due date as a result of the COVID-19 emergency, please contact the Fee Branch at FeeBranch@waterboards.ca.gov and include the facility ID (WDID) number and invoice number in your email.

 IMPORTANT REMINDER ***

Dischargers who submitted a Notice of Intent (NOI) or No Exposure Certification (NEC) to obtain coverage under the Industrial or Construction General Permit are required to submit a Notice of Termination (NOT) of coverage when: (a) the owner/operator has changed, (b) the facility/site has ceased operations and completed closure activities (including removal all industrial related pollutants or final site stabilization), or (c) the facility/site operations have changed and are no longer subject to the General Permit.

Dischargers shall certify and submit a NOT online at <https://smarts.waterboards.ca.gov>. Email questions on user account access to: stormwater@waterboards.ca.gov. Until a valid (complete) NOT is submitted, the Discharger remains responsible for compliance with the General Permit, including payment of accrued annual fees.
